

Orbitz's selection of the Grand Case Beach Club for the Best In Stay awards in both Leisure and Couples categories is another accolade for the oceanfront resort, which has won other prestigious awards from prominent travel industry media and organizations. Caribbean Travel & Life Magazine readers named the Club the Best Medium Size Resort in the Caribbean, the same as Apple Vacations' clients did. Expedia included the resort in its "Insiders Select List," which numbers only one per cent of its total hotels. "Orbitz's award is especially meaningful because it comes from actual guests who feel they received great service and genuine value, from booking through Orbitz to the delivery of services by our resort," said General Manager Steve Wright. "We are proud to have earned this distinction and we look forward to working with Orbitz and its clientele now and in the future."
