Mountains and ocean create a unique ambience at the Grand Case Beach Club, an upscale resort located about ten minutes from the capital city of Marigot. With sparkling white buildings and red roofs, the Grand Case Beach Club is within yards of the ocean. There are two beaches, one on each side of a hill topped by The Pavilion, a gathering place for the manager's cocktail party and special events.

The resort, which features a tightly knit enclave of buildings, including an oceanfront restaurant, is located adjacent to the gastronomic capital of the island, Grand Case village. It is about a 30 minute drive from the international airport on St. Maarten, the Dutch side of the island. A smaller airport, about five minutes from the Grand Case Beach Club, services small commuter and private aircraft.

RECENT AWARDS

Apple Vacations, Caribbean Travel & Life Magazine, and TripAdvisor are the latest to cite the Grand Case Beach Club for its exceptional service and hospitality. Last year, the resort also won Apple Vacations' "Golden Apple" award. Expedia added the resort to its "Insiders Select" list, which represents 2% of Expedia's total hotel and resort listings. In addition, Orbitz presented the Grand Case Beach Club with its "Best in Stay" award.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The resort's 72 fully air-conditioned ocean and garden units include studios, one and two-bedrooms, all with full kitchens. For those guests who prefer to dine in some nights, limited grocery shopping is available in Grand Case village. Most guests prefer the wide variety of shopping available in Marigot.

AMENITIES

Every unit, which features twin or king-size beds, has a refrigerator, microwave, toaster, coffeemaker, dishes, pots, pans, cutlery, and granite counter tops. Also provided are satellite flat screen color TV, safe, direct dial telephone, internet access, and state-of-the-art security. Each unit has a comfortable sitting area with sofa and easy chairs. Bathrooms have been upgraded in most of the units and feature mahogany countertops, indirect lighting, new commodes and mirrors.

DINING

The Sunset Cafe, open seven days a week for breakfast, lunch, dinner and Happy Hour, not only features excellent international cuisine with a Caribbean flair but also a superb view of the ocean a few yards away. Operated by Alexandre and Chantal, natives of France, the restaurant serves reasonably priced specials plus signature dishes in a casual setting. Alexandre's culinary background includes the Savoy and French Embassy in London, and extensive experience on St. Martin.

Complimentary continental breakfast is included in all room rates. Room service is available for all meals.

RECREATION

Offered on a complimentary basis is the use of all non-motorized water sports equipment, including kayaks, float mats, snorkel gear, paddleboats and sailboat; tennis court and swimming pool. For the fitness room, there is a small charge.

The tour desk can arrange for local sightseeing, including half day and day sails on a catamaran, snorkeling and scuba diving, as well as visits to the nearby islands of Anguilla, Saba, St. Bart's, and St. Eustatius.

BOARDWALK

A unique feature of the resort is the Boardwalk, located around the hill between the two beaches and connected to the Sunset Cafe. It's a common sight to see guests sipping cocktails and watching the fish, especially the tarpon at night.
